

A profile of local area vendors selling food at Pennington Day 2011

Pennington Fire Company

<http://penningtonfire.org/>

The Pennington Fire Company has been involved in Pennington Day since day one. As I am sure you know, Pennington Day was created the year after the Prep School fire in 1980. A percentage of the proceeds for all participants was collected and given to the school to aid in their loss. The Fire Co. decided to partake in this worthy cause not only as a give back to the community but also as a fund raiser.

This year, the menu will remain unchanged as it has for the past 31 years. Sausage, peppers, onions and sauce on a fresh roll. We also, as usual, will be serving free Birch Beer with every purchase. This recipe dates back to the days of the PFC Clam Bake. The sandwich was one of many items that was served at the picnic. To this day nothing has changed. We continue to take great pride in serving a high quality product.

Pennington Day welcomes PFC back as it continues a proud tradition.

Viva Gelato offers freshly homemade artisan gelato, yogurt, and other sweet delights to Pennington, NJ. Our gelato - an Italian version of the ice cream - contains 4% to 8% butterfat as opposed to ice cream which contains between 16% to 30%, making it the better choice when it comes to cold desserts. We also offer coffee, frappe, and a variety of hot and cold drinks for your liking.

We will be featuring Small World Coffee, Homemade Gelato, Fried Rice, Lo Mein, Chicken Broccoli & General Tso's Chicken at Pennington Day.

Pennington Day thanks SumoSushi and Viva Gelatos as a long-time supporter of Pennington Day.

NEW THIS YEAR: Sweet Belgians

www.sweetbelgians.com/

Caramelized sugar glistening on a delicious-buttery sweet treasure: that sounds like a real Liege waffle and one of life's great indulgences. Liege waffles however are nearly impossible to find.

"Sweet-Belgians", that's Leen and Ruth who both originate from Belgium and reside in the Hopewell Valley, make their waffles from scratch. They use an artisanal method to prepare the dough and bring them right to your town where they bake them fresh and serve them warm. Liege waffles can be eaten anytime and anywhere as a snack, dessert and with all kinds of toppings like powdered sugar, Spekuloosspread (caramel ginger spread), Nutella, nuts, fresh fruits, etc.

Come see them at the Pennington Day Food Court and enjoy this special treat!
